I don't think we ever finalized a time for this call. Are we on for Friday at 11:30 am?

I have a 10 already scheduled for that day. I could speak at 11:30 or alternatively after 4 on Thursday (6/9).

I do expect to be able to get you a full redline markup by Monday or Tuesday. I don't know Jon's schedule, but I'd rather have the call at 10:30 on next Friday (since I might try to skip out to the Cape that Friday afternoon). Does that work for you?

I don't have strong feelings on the subject, but I am inclined to have us set something up for, say, next Friday just to get something on the calendar. If we require more time to review your comments, as we probably will, it still might be useful to touch base at that point. How about 1:30 that day (June 10)? Also, you should not feel that it is necessary for you to provide all comments at once. For example, it would be helpful for us to have your (written) thoughts on the FPE issue generally and the Allstate policy specifically now so that we can give them some additional consideration. If there are other areas that you have identified that you think may be of concern to us, no harm in putting us on notice now even if you have not yet developed proposed language.

Thanks. Peter

Jon and I are still working on our proposed revisions to the CD which we hope to have to you early next week. Given that, it probably makes sense to put off our call scheduled today at 11 am until next week. Should we wait to reschedule until you have seen our revisions to calculate when you'll be ready to discuss them?
